Helen Keller (DK Readers Level 3) to the Univisium spec created by cinematographer Vittorio Storaro featuring a small degree of pan-and-scan processing - notably in the opening shots in Willard's hotel room, featuring a composite montage - at the insistence of Coppola and Storaro. Understandably, "Tears in Heaven" is far from a happy song - and Rush quickly faded from theaters - but the song's hopeful, probing approach to unimaginable grief strongly resonated with listeners, who sent the track soaring to No. I look forward to hearing how it works for you, Vickie.
